A few years ago the British team Manchester United played the Spanish team Deportivo de La Coruña in the Champions League.

Two Manchester United fans wanted to travel to Spain to see the game.

It wasn’t possible to fly to La Coruña direct, so they needed to fly to Santiago de Compostela, and then get a taxi.

They booked tickets to Santiago on the Internet.

They checked in at Heathrow Airport at 9:00 p.m. because the flight was at 11:00 at night.

When the plane landed they were very surprised! It was morning!

They walked out of the airport and stopped a taxi.

They asked the taxi driver, “Where’s the game?” The taxi driver answered, “What game?”

They weren’t in Spain. They were in Santiago, the capital of Chile!
